Yellow warning
Rain

Between
21:00 Tue 31 Oct 2023 and
09:00 Wed 1 Nov 2023

Another period of heavy rain is likely to bring some flooding and transport disruption across Northern Ireland.

What to expect

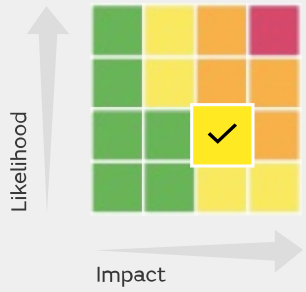
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible
- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Some communities may be cut off by flooded roads

Further details

After a very brief respite, another spell of heavy rain is likely to move from the southwest later on Tuesday and at first on Wednesday. Many places will see another 15 to 25 mm, with 30-50 mm possible in the east, this falling on already very saturated ground.

Reason for update

Rainfall totals expected to be higher, particularly in the east, and will follow a very wet spell on Monday night.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
